The G2 Gallery

The G2 Gallery Celebrates the Opening of Nature LA: Nick Fash on Abbot Kinney First Friday

First Installment of New Exhibition Series Opens November 6, 2009

Venice, CA—The G2 Gallery will celebrate the opening of Nature LA: Nick Fash on November 6, 2009 at 6:00pm in an event coinciding with Abbot Kinney First Fridays. Forth Magazine, the Westside's source for art and literature, will be on hand and will provide the evening's musical entertainment.

The new exhibition will focus primarily on Nick's vivid and vibrantly colorful closeup images of undersea creatures. Each image appears as a study in color and form, capturing the glowing tendrils and neon translucence of this fascinating sea life. P is a limited edition of xx.

Nick's position as an educator for Heal the Bay's Santa Monica Bay Aquarium merged with his love of diving to inspire him to begin shooting underwater photography that he could use in the classroom. He is the winner of various photo competitions and has formed a serendipitous alliance with Fuji Corp., which became aware of Nick's work when his underwater camera housing was flooded on a dive. Nature LA is Nick's debut gallery exhibition.

About Nature LA

Nature LA brings into focus the work of individual photographers based in the Los Angeles area whose passion is shooting in nature. The G2 Gallery presents an ongoing series of nature and wildlife photography by Los Angeles area photographers. The exhibitions will rotate regularly to showcase up and coming photographers from Los Angeles.

About G2 Gallery

Established in March 2008, the G2 Gallery in Venice, California, is a green art space with a dedicated focus on contemporary nature and wildlife photography. In keeping with G2's commitment to supporting arts and the environment, the gallery presents exhibitions with eco-conscious themes, donating the proceeds from all art sales to environmental charities and hosts free concerts and lectures that bring awareness of critical issues to our community.
