The G2 Gallery

G2 Gallery Launches Concert Series with Musical Guest James Koenig

Environmental gallery presents an evening of Halloween-themed music

Venice, CA – James Koenig is an operatic singer, arts advocate, writer, director and teacher, and will be the first guest in the first performance of the concert series Echoes Above at the Beach, scheduled for Oct. 26, 2008 at the G2 Gallery in Venice, CA.

G2 Gallery presents James Koenig as their first guest in a series of concerts. Koenig has performed in operas, concerts and recitals in the United States, Italy and Scandinavia. He has also produced concerts, recitals, chamber music events, cabarets and a concert series at the Episcopal Cathedral Center in Los Angeles. Additionally, he is the founder/director of Scandinavian Film Festival L.A. Koenig will show off his musical skills at the G2 Gallery by performing a musical soiree to conjure up the spirits of night, nature and Halloween. The concert is scheduled for the afternoon of October 26 at 4:00 p.m.

G2 Gallery is committed to supporting the environment by showcasing photography of our natural world. Currently on display is the exhibit Robert
